The Cape Cod Canal has been a fact of life for so long that it's easy to forget the amazing story of its creation -- not to mention the continuing challenges it has presented in the 99 years since. You'll be able to take it all in and get a preview of the Canal's 100th birthday celebration at our Club's October meeting, which will combine a guided tour of the Canal Visitor Center under Park Ranger Samantha Gray with a delicious lunch at the nearby Dan'l Webster Inn.

The tour itself will include an 18-minute film along with the museum exhibits. (The Canal was built under the direction of a Harvard graduate, August Belmont Jr.)

We're sure this will be a popular event, so in order to accommodate everyone, we have arranged for two tours, both before and after lunch. The first tour group, of up to 55 people, should plan to arrive at the Visitor Center by 10:30 a.m. for the 1-hour program. (For directions, see the "Contact" section on the website www.CapeCodCanal.us.) Following the tour, the group will drive about one mile to the Dan'l Webster Inn (149 Main Street, Sandwich) for a noon lunch together with members of the second group, Following the lunch, at about 1:30, the second group will drive to the Visitor Center for their tour.

Please select your preferred group on the reply form below, and be sure to include your phone number so we can reach you in case we need to adjust the makeup of the two groups.

It should be a wonderful day both on and off the Canal. Don't miss it!

Please complete this form and mail it with your check. Only reservations received by Friday, October 11 with payment can be accepted. No phone reservations or walk-ins please.
